

Instruction

Adherence to Copyright Laws

It is the intent of the Board of Education to adhere to the provisions of copyright law together with publisher's license agreements concerning the classroom copying/use of educational materials and software. Any duplication of copyrighted materials by employees, therefore, must be done with permission of the copyright holder or within the bounds of "fair use" as set forth in the guidelines concerning use agreed upon by various representative groups of publishers, authors, composers, teachers and other affected parties.

Legal Reference: Title 17, U.S. Code

Public Law 94-553, The Copyright Act of 1976, 17 U.S.C. 101 et seq.

Policy adopted: October 4, 2004

