

New ConstructionAssembling and Preserving Documents

Plans, specifications, warranties, and other documents which will be important in the operation of the facility shall become the property of the Board of Education upon completion of the project and shall be catalogued and permanently stored by the Director of Building Services for future reference.

Policy adopted: October 6, 2003